Dear Parents and Carers,

The Queen's Platinum Jubilee celebrations are fast approaching, and no matter how we feel about the monarchy as an institution we thought that this would be a fantastic opportunity to learn about the seven decades which have passed since the Queen's coronation.

Each class will spend a day immersed in a different decade, studying the music, fashion, culture and biggest news stories of the day. If your child would like to come into school dressed in clothes from their class' decade (this will be announced on Dojo) that would be fantastic. If you have photographs from this decade please feel free to share them with the teachers too. (Please pop your child's name on the reverse and we will be sure to return them to you.)

In the afternoon, weather allowing, we will hold a 'tea' party outside – ironically no tea will be drunk! School will provide all refreshments and will cater for all dietary needs that are known to us.

Just a reminder that our 'extra' bank holiday will be on Friday 27th May, so school will be closed. (As the additional bank holiday falls within the school holidays all schools in the UK have been allocated an extra day, the date of which can be chosen by individual schools.) Our celebration of the last 7 decades will happen on the day before, Thursday 26th May, which we thought would be a really enjoyable way to finish for the half term break.

Yours Sincerely,

Mrs G. Harvey & Mrs C. Johnson
